

Satellite Radio should not be limited in its ability to broadcast local weather and traffic. This service (although not yet available in Atlanta until later this year) is one of the reasons that I have the service in my truck. This type of info you need "right now", not after the next commercial break or new story or idiot DJ.

Don't give in to the lobbyists! Do the right thing! Don't limit satellite radio!